Note.—The foregoing Account, which is founded upon the Irish Records of Commerce, and exhibits the Value of the Imports and Exports, as computed at the Irish Rates of Valuation, is necessarily stated exclusively of the Trade between Great Britain and Ireland, in consequence of the discontinuance of the Register heretofore kept in Dublin, of the interchange of goods duty free between the two countries. The value of the Imports and Exports, constituting that branch of trade, is however subjoined; as it appears stated according to the British Rates of Valuation, in the Books of the London Department; viz.

Imports into Ireland from Great Britain - - - - £. 5,006,639. 7. –
Exports from Ireland to Great Britain - - - - - £. 5,588,146. 9. 6.
